HARWICH HIGH SCHOOL

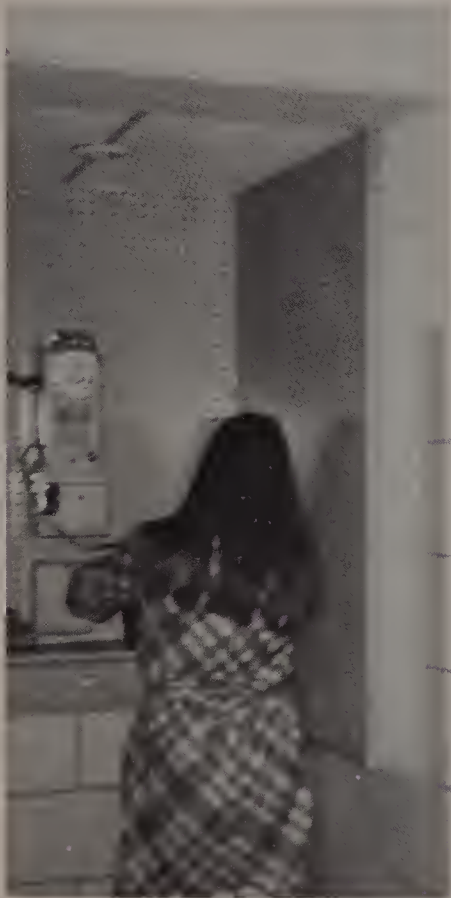

The voices of cheerleaders at fall soccer games—the utter concentration—the sick jokes on the field hockey bus—daily lectures and decision making—the headaches and the laughter.

The quick naps and the date-
making—the phone calls and the long English
periods—bench-lugging
at the hockey games.

From white whoopee socks to the old fur coats—to the time writings
and thesis
statements—
